THE AMOUNT OF COLLEGE GRADUATES WORKING MINIMUM WAGE JOBS THAN IN THE PAST. IN 2013, GRADUATES LEFT COLLEGE WITH $30,000 WORTH OF DEBT AND THE CONSTANT WORRY THAT THEY MAY NOT FIND A JOB. CAREER SERVICE OFFERS TO HELP STUDENTS PREPARE FOR INTERVIEWS AND GUIDANCE WITH CAREER CHOICES. DIRECTOR OF CAREER SERVICES DAVE DURHAM SAYS THEY ALSO HELP WITH RESUMES AND CONDUCT MOCK INTERVIEWS TO READY STUDENTS FOR THE PROCESS.

“We can help students that aren’t sure what they want to major in yet choose a major. Uh we have some counselors do that. We work one on one with students, we have seminars.”

DURHAM SAYS GETTING INVOLVED WITH CAREER SERVICES DURING YOUR SOPHOMORE OR JUNIOR YEAR CAN POSITIVELY IMPACT YOUR ABILITY TO GET A JOB AFTER GRADUATION.

“WVU career services are open Monday through Friday from 8:15am to 4:45pm. Now back to Jimmy in the studio.”////////////////////
